- ► Tylor's theories have been rejected by most scholars but have led to the development of alternate theories about the origins of religion
- ► Muller:
 - Disagreed with Tylor's notion that the spirits inhabited the natural world
 - Instead, he had the idea that the spirits possessed human emotions such as anger which led to them having good and bad temper and that it was this that led them to be revered as deities
- ➤ Whilst Animism is associated with pre-historic cultures, it still exists in some of today's cultures; e.g. Australian Aboriginal people, some African and Polynesian communities.
